

Chicago Friends School seeks Head of School (Chicago)

Chicago Friends School seeks an experienced Head of School. Successful candidates should have prior classroom teaching experience and/or prior experience overseeing a school or other nonprofit organization. Candidates should also have a proven commitment to community service and practice the Quaker values of simplicity, peace, integrity, community, equality, and service.

Chicago Friends School is built upon the Quaker belief that a child's quality of character is as important as intellectual growth. Children reflect, question, and explore in a nurturing environment and through a curriculum that is academically challenging and developmentally appropriate.
